MEET PORT JEFFERSON

Long Island's hidden treasure is located 50 miles east of New York City, combining beauty and history with its picturesque water views and a rich maritime heritage. Port Jefferson Harbor is one of the north shore's top destinations for boaters in the northeast and one of Long Island's two ports for access from Connecticut. The calm waters of the harbor along with a deep draft, provides transient boaters with easy access to many unique shops, specialty restaurants and year-round cultural activities, all within a short walk from the marina docks.

Make sure to visit our magnificent Harborfront Park and Port Jefferson Village Center, a focal point for many educational and social activities, including historic exhibits, and outdoor movies and concerts. Nearby, the Maritime Explorium is a wonderful place of discovery and learning for the entire family. Visitors can also recapture history in the Bayles Boat Shop where you can learn about the building and restoration of wooden boats.

Port Jefferson is home to live theatre year round, enjoy the Mather Museum complex seasonally. The Village hosts many exciting annual events, including our renowned 4th of July Parade, The Boater's Maritime Festival, Harvest Fest, Farmer's Market and our internationally recognized Charles Dickens Festival.

Visit by car, train, ferry or boat and extend your stay at one of our charming accommodations. Fall in love with Port Jefferson...destination for a day or a lifetime.

Visit our website: www.portjeff.com to sign up for Village updates and see our calendar of events.
